

Oct. 26, 2023

People Moves

Former Hedge Fund GC/CCO Joins Lowenstein Sandler's Investment Management Group

By Robin L. Barton, Hedge Fund Law Report

Jonathan A. Danziger, former GC and CCO at Glenview Capital Management, has joined Lowenstein Sandler's investment management group as a partner. Based in Lowenstein's New York City office, Danziger advises investment management clients on the formation and structuring of private funds and management companies; regulatory and compliance matters; and shareholder engagement and activist campaigns.

For insights from other Lowenstein attorneys, see "Use of Alternative Data Continues to Grow, Says New Survey" (Mar. 2, 2023); and "Proposed Private Fund Rules: Overview of the Proposal and the Importance of Industry Comments" (Mar. 17, 2022).

Danziger has particular experience counseling clients on fund structuring; public and private investment opportunities; compliance matters; regulatory exams; trading issues; and ongoing requirements for maintaining the highest standards of operational excellence.

See "Designing a State-of-the-Art Hedge Fund Compliance Department: Leveraging Cutting-Edge Technology" (Jul. 20, 2023).

As GC and CCO at Glenview, Danziger was responsible for all legal and compliance matters:

- providing strategic advice on investment product development;
- developing, implementing and enforcing the firm's compliance program;
- responding to regulatory exams and inquiries; and
- advising on day-to-day operational, trading, securities and corporate issues.

See our three-part series on the first 100 days as GC/CCO: "Preparing for the Role and Setting the Tone" (Apr. 29, 2021); "Developing Knowledge and Forging Key Relationships" (May 6, 2021); and "Managing Daily Work, Performing Risk Assessments and Looking Ahead" (May 13, 2021).

With a keen understanding of the inner workings of funds and investment managers, Danziger takes a proactive, problem-solving, detail-oriented and “hands-on” approach to his practice and his relationship with his clients.

See “Senior GCs at Leading Private Fund Managers Share Practical Tips and Insights” (Dec. 8, 2022).