

Lowenstein Sandler's Cybersecurity Awareness Series

Session 19 – Safety as Enterprise Risk

By Amy S. Mushahwar and Kathleen A. McGee

FEBRUARY 2026

Kathleen A. McGee: The FTC is really very focused on safety, and in particular, children's safety, but safety generally.

So we're talking chat bots and suicide assist, we're talking about medical assist in AI, we're talking about child safety and monitoring on platforms.

All of these things require clients to really take a new, fresh look at how they are monitoring and using data that's incoming and who their users are.
