Jamelle oversees the administrative functions of the firm's bankruptcy department. She supervises the paralegals and support staff in the bankruptcy and corporate departments, and she is responsible for work assignments, performance reviews, and compensation.

Jamelle is very active in various community and national women's volunteer service organizations, including the North Jersey Chapter of The Links Inc. and the Montclair Chapter of Drifters Inc. These two groups provide activities and fundraising to support college scholarships for inner city children, safe havens for battered women, food and housing in support of local homeless shelters, and men's and women's health screenings.
