Shawn Hayes represents early-stage technology companies and investors in a full array of venture finance transactions. He serves on client teams that focus on productive negotiation and on closing deals that offer critical financing to fast-growth ventures.

Shawn delivers the meticulous attention to detail required to craft client-focused transactions that not only safeguard clients' interests but that also support their commercial objectives and bottom line. With deals ranging in size and complexity from millions to hundreds of millions in capital investment, Shawn is valued for remaining calm under pressure at every turn.

In law school, Shawn served as an intern with the San Francisco Sheriff Department's Prisoner Legal Services. As a legal advocate, he counseled inmates on the various issues they faced during their incarceration.
