Clients call on Manali to help them protect and manage their intellectual property assets. She routinely provides assistance in due diligence relating to client IP issues in complex merger, acquisition, and venture capital transactions. Additionally, she files patent applications and regularly drafts and negotiates a broad range of contracts, including:

- Purchase agreements
- Licensing agreements
- Assignment agreements
- Professional services agreements
- Master services agreements
- Software development agreements
- Cloud services agreements
- Nondisclosure agreements
- Invention assignment agreements
- Confidentiality agreements

Manali drafts privacy policies and terms of use statements for websites and mobile apps, and she counsels her clients on privacy law issues, including data transfers and privacy shield certifications. Her graduate training in electrical and computer engineering provides her with indispensable insights on the challenges facing the developers of new technologies.
