Meagan provides counsel to mortgage servicers, investment managers, and originators in regard to mortgage and servicing rights acquisitions, dispositions, financings, and conduits. Her experience extends to counseling clients in connection with numerous servicing advance facilities and excess spread acquisitions or sales.

Additionally, Meagan offers guidance to borrowers, lenders, and administrative agents in syndicated credit facilities (domestic and cross-border). She also works with both purchasers and sellers in par and distressed bank debt and bankruptcy trade claims and securities. Meagan counsels collateral managers in collateralized loan obligation (CLO) transactions and has worked with financial institutions in commercial paper programs, asset-backed commercial paper programs, and the securitization of various types of receivables.
