Nicholas focuses his practice on the representation of private funds (including hedge funds, private equity funds, venture capital funds, co-investment vehicles, and funds-of-one) and investment advisers with respect to structuring, formation, and ongoing operational, regulatory, and compliance needs.

He works with clients throughout the fund life cycle, advising on formation and dissolution as well as day-to-day operational matters. He has experience with advising all types of fund managers at all stages, including emerging and well-established fund managers.

His scope of work includes drafting offering and organizational documents, side letter agreements, and general partner and management company operating agreements, in addition to coordinating the fund formation and dissolution processes.
