Jackie litigates disputes against insurance companies involving directors and officers liability, first-party property, professional liability, employment practices liability, and commercial liability. She also advises corporate policyholders on structuring their insurance programs to ensure coverage and avoid litigation.

Her previous experience includes representing clients in complex commercial litigation matters, including breach of contract, employment, negligence, construction, and land use actions. She has worked on issues pertaining to corporate restructuring, refinancing, and large-scale property and debt acquisitions, as well as corporate formation and governance.

Jackie once served as a member of a state-commissioned team investigating deficiencies in government hiring practices, and she coauthored the final report with recommendations for reform.

In law school, Jackie served as a judicial intern for the Hon. Peter F. Bariso Jr., A.J.S.C., Hudson County, Jersey City, New Jersey.
