Erica's practice focuses on corporate bankruptcy, creditors' rights matters, and insolvency-related litigation.

Prior to joining Lowenstein, Erica spent two years as a law clerk to the Hon. Stacey L. Meisel of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey. She also interned with the Hon. Garry Furnari in the Civil Division of Superior Court of Essex County, Newark, New Jersey.

During law school, Erica assisted pro bono clients with bankruptcy filings through Rutgers Law School's Honorable Morris Stern Bankruptcy Pro Bono Project. She participated in the Community and Transactional Lawyering Clinic and served as both a research fellow and research assistant in the field of debtor/creditor law.

Erica also worked in a boutique law firm on motions, mediations, and discovery in matters concerning employment, land use, and trusts and estates.
