Rahul's practice focuses on mergers and acquisitions, venture capital and private equity deals, corporate restructuring, and joint venture transactions for high-growth startups and investment funds. He supports technology companies across all stages of the corporate life cycle and advises on day-to-day operations, including commercial, employment, and intellectual property matters.

Rahul has extensive international experience counseling global companies across various industries, such as technology, telecommunications, financial services, and natural resources. Prior to joining Lowenstein Sandler, he was an associate at an international law firm in Dubai, U.A.E., as well as a summer associate at an Am Law 50 law firm in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam.

Before transitioning to a career in law, Rahul gained commercial experience driving the corporate strategy and business development teams at a private investment firm in Kampala, Uganda, and at a U.S. government contracting firm in Kandahar, Afghanistan, and Dubai, U.A.E.

He is a native Hindi speaker.
